

E2ACADEMY

EXPLORE. BELONG. THRIVE.

E2 Academy is a growing, fully accredited small K-12 private school in Edmonton, Alberta that specializes in educating twice-exceptional students.

We are seeking a dynamic individual for a full time Educational Assistant position to make a lasting impact on children in an inclusive, fun and dynamic learning environment.

WHO WE ARE

- A team of passionate educators, assistants and specialists dedicated to making a difference in the lives of our students by creatively building skills and self confidence.
- We utilize a project-based education model individualized to each student's needs and interests.
- We have multigrade classrooms with a maximum of eight students per room with at least one hands-on Educational Assistant and one teacher.
- We believe differentiated instruction and assistive technology are the educational standard.
- We use positive reinforcement and feedback to encourage a child's growth and confidence.

ABOUT YOU

- You have hands-on experience with twice-exceptionality and knowledge of a variety of diagnoses and challenges.
- You enjoy working collaboratively with a team and are passionate about cultivating an environment where students feel safe, supported, and challenged.
- You understand that behaviors are a type of communication, and strive to translate these to support the student's needs.
- You possess strong verbal, written, organization and time management skills and are able to remain goal-focused while still flexible enough to respond to urgent needs.
- You are comfortable with various technologies and understand the need for individualized assistive technologies for the students

Preferred Qualifications:

- Educational Assistant Certificate or comparable education.
- Courses related to working with students with special needs.
- Non-Violent Crisis Intervention and/or Studio III non-violent intervention training.
